How the Migrant Resource Centre's Home and Community Care Service can help you?

Are you from a Culturally and Linguistically Diverse background (CALD)? Are you an older person, a carer or a person with a disability? We can help you with the support you may need to stay in your own home.

Client Workers

Our Client Workers can assist you with any problem you have such as access to:

- ❖ Housework
- ❖ Personal Care
- ❖ Meals
- ❖ Transport
- ❖ Outside activities
- ❖ Medical issues
- ❖ Legal or welfare matters
- ❖ Visiting Pontville Cemetery
- ❖ Healthy Living Group

Bi-cultural Workers

Our services are supported by bi-cultural workers who can speak Chinese, Vietnamese, Bahasa Malay, Serbian, Polish, Dutch, Spanish and German. If you speak another language we can organize an interpreter for you.

Trauma Support Program

A client worker is available for clients and their families who may be experiencing memories of war and trauma and would like support.

Seniors Club/Day Centres

Once you become a Migrant Resource Centre client you can join our Seniors Club Day Centre.

Day Centre sessions are held from 10.00am until 2.00pm weekly and include activities such as entertainment, exercise and information sessions. A hot lunch is included at a reasonable cost and transport can be arranged if needed.

Our Day Centres include:

- ❖ Wednesday >> German speaking
- ❖ Thursday >> Chinese speaking
- ❖ Friday >> Multicultural
